Who Dat® Spoons

Who Dat gonna put dem fish in da boat! Born out of necessity in the marshes of south Louisiana where shallow mudflats require long casts and a shallow-running lure, the Who Dat Spoon produces the most bone-jarring, tooth-rattling hits you can get outside of getting sacked by a 400-pound defensive tackle. Designed for super-long casts and the ability to ride high in the water column, this innovative spoon is perfect for all kinds of gamefish in salt and fresh water. Dual-pitch rattles produce both high- and low-pitches and the weed guard (that actually works!) doubles as an additional strike enhancer (as if it needed more!). Like every Bomber Saltwater Grade lure, the Who Dat is "Built To Dominate" with saltwater tough hooks, stunning colors and superior finishes. The Who Dat can't be beat!

This shallow water sensation is totally irresistible... "slow dancing" (twitching/walking the dog action) allows you to suspend this slow sinker in the strike zone, driving fish CRAZY!!! If that wasn't enough, we added rattles to incite bone-jarring strikes from even the most wary fish. The 3X saltwater grade hooks and components seal the deal.

Super Pogy™

The Bomber Saltwater Grade Super Pogy is the ultimate lipless crankbait whether you're after giant redfish in the Gulf or surfcasting for monster stripers and bluefish. It's the ultimate lure because it maximizes every characteristic anglers look for in a bait – it's supertough to stand up to the abuse, it's weighted and shaped perfectly to cut the wind and cast incredible distances, and the color patterns turn big fish inside-out. The Super Pogy can be ripped through the surf, slow-rolled along the bottom or retrieved in a lift-and-drop fashion. Loud internal rattles add to its fish-appeal.

The Paradise Popper Xtreme brings Carolina rigging to the surface! It's splashy. It clatters. It's Titanium-Tuff and weighted for longer casts. Tag Team™ Multi-Swimming Rig

Multi-lure rigs are heavy, bulky and can be strenuous to cast for long periods. This weight and bulk often limits use to deeper water. But not with Bomber Saltwater's new Tag Team. This multi-lure saltwater-strong rig is lightweight, allowing anglers to throw it up shallow for redfish or snook as well as working deeper when the situation requires.

The Tag Team gives anglers the ability to throw up to four lures at once or two lures with two spinner blades to simulate a school of baitfish, and with no head to weigh down the rig, it can be cast to any depth to run shallow through grass for reds, trout and snook and deep to mackerel and other big-water fish. Saltwater-tough snaps and swivels stand up to the punishment tough saltwater fish dish out.

3-Wire Flash™
Multi-Swimming Rig

For many years saltwater anglers have used umbrella rigs for trolling, but until the rig was redesigned for freshwater not many anglers thought to cast one. The Bomber Saltwater 3-Wire Flash is a castable umbrella rig designed for saltwater anglers. Saltwater-tough snaps, swivels and super wire create a tough, durable, castable rig that creates the image of a small school of baitfish, prompting vicious strikes from inshore fish like stripers and bluefish. Even the giants of the big blue water fall for the 3-Wire Flash.

The 3-Wire Flash features super-thick, super-strong stainless steel wire with six snaps and swivels for almost limitless configurations of baits and blades. Durable loops midway down each of the three arms hold a saltwater grade snap and swivel for flashing blades or additional lures. The connection of the wire lure arms is doubly reinforced for durability and to ensure that giant stripers, bluefish or any other predator that strikes comes to the boat.
